Philip Sayer Memorial Scholarship

for Missouri Volunteer Firefighters & Volunteer Fire Officers

BACKGROUND: Philip Sayer, founder of the Galt Fire Department, later renamed the Galt Fire Protection District, was dedicated to improving the funding and training for volunteer fire departments nationwide. During his fire service career, he was the FFAM and Missouri representative to the National Volunteer Fire Council. He also served as a member of the Executive Board of the NVFC. While on the NVFC board, he sat on numerous committees that shaped the standards that are used to evaluate fire department and officer requirements. He was instrumental in the Fire ACT grants and keeping them funded when efforts arose to cut them. He also served as FFAM's Legislative Committee Chairman and in 1995 was credited with helping to pass a state law which created the Fire Education Commission. Phil chaired the Commission until he passed away on December 14, 2007

THE SCHOLARSHIP: This Scholarship provides Missouri volunteer firefighters and volunteer fire officers the opportunity to further their skills and education to attend Winter Fire School in Columbia, February 1-3, 2019.

The Fire Education/Advisory Commission has earmarked funding for scholarships to be awarded in 2019, with emphasis on basic fire fighter training. Each awarded scholarship will provide for tuition for up to 12 hours of training presented during MUFRTI's Winter Fire School.

SELECTION PROCESS: Only completed applications will be reviewed. The selection will be conducted by members of the Missouri Fire Education and Advisory Commission.

CRITERIA: All applicants must:

- Select one to three classes for no more than a total of 12 hours in length
- Be recommended by the Chief of his or her fire department
- Have at least one year of documented fire service experience
- Be at least 18-years-old

PREFERENCE will be given to:

- Those seeking basic skills training
- Those who have not previously received a scholarship
- No more than TWO applications will be considered per fire department.

LODGING: The University of Missouri's Fire and Rescue Training Institute is offering lodging to scholarship recipients residing beyond a 50 mile radius of Columbia.

DEADLINE: The completed scholarship application, MUFRTI Winter Fire School application, and any supporting material must be received no later than January 10, 2019.
